LEAVE THIS MATTER ALONE.

At a meeting of the Committee on Light on July 6th Mr. George B. Davis, Jefferson Ward, offered the following resolution:

"Resolved, That heretofore the Committee on Light instead of the Superintendent of the Gas Works emploied and discharge all labor required in the works."

On motion of Mr. Noble, the resolution was laid on the table, where it is to be kept it will be allowed to rest forever, and the City Attorney was asked for his opinion on the question, whether the committee could lawfully take the action, which it is to be hoped, the City Attorney will find it forbidden to do.

We know nothing of the motives that prompted Mr. Davis to offer this resolution, and we are bound to suppose that he thinks it conducive to the public good.
But we tell Mr. Davis that if any such rule should be established, the City Gas Works would immediately become the plaything of politics, and the hearts of all the bummies and dead beats who trade "indoores" for whisky.

The Superintendent of the Gas Works, instead of having an efficient corps under his eye that he can manage and control, would have a lot of insubordinate politicians to coax, who would look on him as their subordinate. All discipline would be ended, and the superintendent would get the public service attended to or not accordingly as those employed chose to work and attend to it or not.

W. S. BOSWELL.

Marietta, Va., July 4.

We happen to know all about Mr.
Boswell, the writer of this letter. He is one of the best citizens in Fauquier county. He is a farmer who has never had any connection of any sort with politics, except to do his duty as a citizen by voting the Democratic ticket in every election. He had a brother, Captain James B. Boswell, on General Stonewall Jackson's staff, who was killed at the battle of Chancellorsville, by Jackson's side, and by the same valley that killed that immortal commander.

There is a great deal in this letter that the people of Virginia should think about and think about very earnestly. It is a startling thing to say, as Mr. Boswell says, that in the recent election of United States senator, "the Legislature undeniably did not represent the people of Virginia," and Mr. Boswell is by no means the only person who says this.
For we have yet to meet with a single person who has claimed that the Legislature did represent the people of Virginia in that election.

It is also a startling thing to say, as Mr. Boswell says, that, although the representative from Fauquier county voted for Mr. Martin, "he must have known that before the people of the county General Lee as against Mr. Martin, would have received nine out of every ten votes cast." Mr. Boswell is not the only representative from his county who do not believe there is to-day a man in the State who could poll for any office a larger vote than Flitz Lee.
